ELECTRIC LIGHTS ON PLAY GROUND

Champion Horse Shoe Pitcher of Middlesboro to Be Determined on Armistice Day.

The horse shoe courts have just ben provided with electric lights. Horse shoe pitchers who could not pitch during the day can now do so until 9:30 at night. This affords an excellent opportunity for business men who are too busy during the day to pleasantly amuse themselves after the tday's work.

The tournament is drawing to a close. The finals for the silver trophy will be held on Armistice Day at 11:30. The winner of this trophy will be the champion horse-shoe pitcher of Middlesboro. The tryouts for the finals will take place this afternoon. At this time there will be some very spirited pitching.

The playground association takes this opportunity to publicly thank the following for their donations for the construction of the courts. S. Owsley and Son for the use of the ground; Allen Lumber company for wood used in the pitching boxes; Jolly Holmes for electric wiring; Mr. Hadaick of the city prison for furnishing laborers; and the city commission for granting the use of the power.

Shakeup In Personnel Of House Senate Committees

Few Important Changes to be Made as Result of Election

RING OUT OLD

Death Has Claimed Three Committeeman Whose Place Must be Filled Before Expiration of Present Congress.

WASHINGTON, D. C. Nov. 8. (AP)—While there will be a general shake up in the personnel of the house and senate committees as the result of Tuesday's election, fewer than a dozen changes of importance will take place.

In chairmanships it will be necessary to fill the vacancies caused by death, however they must be filled before the expiration of the present congress. Death claimed Senators, Colt, Rhode Island Brandegee of Connecticut. This leaves chairmanships of immigration and judiciary committees vacant while in the house the merchant marine committee is without a chairman because of the death of Representative Green of Massachusetts.

There is considerable speculation as to the possibility of the republicans endeavoring to read Senator LaFollette of Wisconsin and his followers in the house and senate out of the party, depriving them of the committee assignments and the privilege of attending the party conferences.

Several democratic leaders privately declared themselves as favoring some disciplinary action against Senator Wheeler, LaFollette's running mate.

Mrs. Harding Dangerously Ill To-day

Physicians statements declared that she slept poorly last night and took only a small amount of nourishment. Complications in the upper part of the stomach increased the severity of her condition.

BOY IS TORTURED TO LAY SPIRITS

Killing and Torturing Members of Tribe Fail to Drive Off Disease and Hunger.

WRANGEL, Alaska, Nov. 8.—(AP)—Killing and torturing members of the tribe having failed to drive away evil spirits that were causing hunger and disease, an Indian in the Laird district if Canada, 500 miles east of here, hanged a dog daily until he had put to death his whole sled team.

This was one of the tales that trickled through to Wrangell by means of gold prospectors after a party of Canadian Royal Mounted police passed through here recently bound for Vancouver, B. C. with five Indians accused of torturing to death Moccasin, a lad of 17. The boy was said to have been buried while he still breathed.

Legends that the Indians of the wilds of northern British Columbia and Southern Youkon commonly tortured and slew fellow tribesmen for being friends and companions of injurious pirits have long been common among prospectors.

Five months ago Frank Bass, factor for the Hudson Bay company at Fort Laird, Yukon Territory, reported to Canadian authorities that Big Aleck, a Cree Indian living on the Mackenzie river, had told him that nomand Indians from the Nelson river, in British Columbia, had murdered a boy accused of witchcraft. The crime was placed at 40 miles south of Fort Laird.

Superintendent Knight of the Royal Police, stationed at Vancouver, sent a patrol to investigate. The Laird district was reached after traveling hundreds of miles on foot with pack dogs and navigating the swift lower Laird river by canoe. Big Aleck, when found repudiated the story. The party of three policemen, commanded by Inspector T. V. Sandys-Wunsch, camped near the suspected Indians.

Patiently studying the territory the investigators came to a hole in which they found the body of a boy with his hands tied behind him.

After the confession from the Indians came easily. These were to the effect that Edy, a squaw, had suspended a Moccisan head downward from a sapling to drive away evil spirits, after Big Aleck had dreamed that the lad was a sorcerer. A girl, Lucy, found Mocassin hanging there and begged that he be cut down. Lucyp said that the lad was alive when put into the hole, but other Indians asserted that he was killed first by hitting him on the head with a rock.

The police arrested Eddy, her three brothers, Dan, Jimmy and Clem, and Big Aleck, and took them to Fort Liard. At a hearing there the inspector, a magistrate, decided that he prisoners should go to Vancouver for trial.

The three policemen brought the prisoners out to Wrangell, traveling 1,000 miles on foot and by canoe.

No police had been in the Laird district since 1892.

It is rumored that Queen Marie of Roumania is favorably inclined toward the possibility of the marriage of the young countess and her son, Prince Nicholas, now serving as a junior officer on a British battleship.

ARMY MULE TO MEET NAVY GOAT

Ticket Applications for Army-Navy Football Classic Far Exceeds the Supply.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 8.—(AP).—Applications for tickets for the Army-Navy gridiron classic, to be played in the Baltimore Stadium, November 29, are already greatly in excess of the supply allotted to Baltimore city for sale, those in charge of ticket distribution have announced.

Of the 78,000 seats provided in the Stadium, 10,000 have been apportioned to Baltimore, and the remainder equally divided between the Military and Naval Academies for disposal. With requests for seats from the city's share pouring into the office of Mayor Howard W. Jackson by every mail, the demand has far exceeded the number available by several thousand.

Every effort will be made to minimize scalping. Orders have been issued by Police Commissioner Gaither for the arrest of every person attempting to sell tickets above face value and prompt and vigorous prosecution has been promised.

Mayor Jackson, after a conference with hotel managers, gave assurances that no exorbitant prices for rooms would be charged. William J. Quinn, president of the Baltimore Hotel Men's Association, told the mayor that hotel rates have not been and will not be increased for the date of the game.

Mayor Jackson has also been informed that ample hotel accommodations for visitors to Baltimore will be available. If indications should point to an overflow, however, the mayor said, an appeal will be made to citizens, and a list of rooming houses where accommodations may be obtained, would be published.

SAME TRACK USED FOR BOTH CARS

Single Track War Pronounced Success After 15 Days of Trial

DALLAS, Tex. Nov. 8.—(AP).—Operation of an electric interurban system and the regular steam railway traffic upon a single track line was pronounced successful here after 15 days of trial. The Texas Interurban Railway is co-operating with the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railroad in operating a joint line between Dallas and Denton, a college town 38 miles north of here.

The joint operation was decided when the interurban company, in fulfilling a contract with the city of Dallas, decided that Denton was the best town in the surrounding territory to include in the network of connecting electric lines. A proposition was made to the railroad company to rent its track, obviating the construction of a parallel road.

A joint dispatching system, under the supervision of the steam line company, is maintained. Each electric passenger train and each steam passenger train is considered first class, the electric express trains second class and the steam freight trains third class. The electric company operates 30 passenger trains, and four express trains, while the railroad company runs four passenger trains, and two freight trains.

The interuban company pays a stipulated rental monthly for the use of the track, and in addition pays a sum for the maintenance of the right of way, and its prorata share of the dispatching cost. Before the inauguration of the electric system, the steam line to Denton, which was just a branch line of the "Katy," was not a paying proposition, but since the electric line has started using the track, the line become a better paying proposition for both companies, officials said.

"Let us make our ofering in the fer this privilege. How better can we commemorate Armistice Day, November 11, 1924, than by seizing the first opportunity to pay just tribute to this friend of humanity that rendered such valiant service to soldiers and sailors of the World War?

"Let us make our offering in the name and for the sake of those whose noble sacrifices and heroic devotion to this country have glorified history's pages and made Armistice Day forever dear to the hearts of our people."

DAKOTA MAYOR ADVISES FARMERS

Urges Them To Take Advantage Of Good Crops and High Grain Prices

SUMMIT, S. D. Nov. 8—(AP).—An unusual "proclamation" was issued to residents of this village by Olaf Melby, mayor and pioneer merchant. This section of South Dakota has harvested one of the biggest crops in its history and Mr. Melby, in a message directed to the farmers of his community, urged them to take advantage of bounteous crops and high grain prices to recover and insure their stability.

"Now that we are harvesting the greatest crop in twenty years, with prices above normal, I wish to speak to you as man to man," Mayor Melby wrote. "First pay your obligations. For debts are like a log jam. Every dollar paid loosens this amount, as it pays the merchant, the jobber, the manufacturer, the banker.

"Do not go into debt. Interest will kill the best individual in the community. Do not work your life out for the other fellow. Renters who pay up their obligations the first ought to buy a farm. But do not pay a thousand dollars down on an $8,000 obligation. If you cannot pay one-third down, buy forty acres instead. Land will never be so cheap again in our time. Buy a home, a farm, a means of livelihood for yourself and your family.

Much stress is laid on the personal appearance of the chorus, and lovers of feminine pulchritude will have the opportunity of seing twenty young and charming ladies who have been pronounced the most beautiful ever seen in musical comedy.

Coal Companies Dispose of Property Valued at $171,750.

SALE CONFIRMED

Court Order is entered, Upon Approval of Price By The Receivers—Other Companies Involved

COVINGTON, Nov. 8.—Judge A. M. J. Cochran, in the United States District Court at Covington yesterday, confirmed the sale of four Kentucky coal companies, which brought a total of $171,750.

The order was made in the suit of the West Virginia Rail Company against the Jewett, Bigelow and Brooks Coal Company and ten of its subsidiary compaiies located in various parts of Kentucky.

The suit was filed on April 7 last, and two weeks later John J. Ritchie and Edward L. Douglas, of Cincinnati, were named ancillary receivers for the defendant company's property in Kentucky.

It was alleged in the petition that the defendant company, together with its subsidiary companies, is indebted to numerous creditors in the sum of approximately $2,300,000.

Sales Are Confirmed

The sale, which were confirmed upon recommendation of the receivers yesterday, were the First Creek Coal Company, of Perry County, which was sold to Robert H. Young, owner of the Blue Diamond Mine Company, in Perry County, Kentucky, for $100,000; the Elkhorn Land Company's property, in Pike County, was sold for $40,000 to R. R. Smith, Huntington, W. Va.; the Black Joe Coal Company's property, in Perry County, was purchased by W. E. Davis for $20,250, and the Roth Coal Company, in Harlan County, was bid in for $11,500.

Price Is Held To Be Too Low

A bid of $80,000 for the First Creek Company was made yesterday, but the receivers would not recommend confirmation of the sale at that price, because, they said, the coal business in Kentucky is improving and the property should bring a larger sum. This bid was objected to by an attorney for the First National Bank of Middlesboro, Ky., one of the Company's largest creditors.

The property involved in the suit included holdings of the Jewett, Bigelow and Brooks Company and its subsidiaries in Kentucky, West Virginia and Virginia and the aggregate value of the coal lands and mining equipment is estimated at several million dollars.

Forest And Field Fires Rage In Four Counties

Army Signal Corps Lay New Cable

SEWARD, Alaska, Nov. 8.—(AP).—A cable of the army signal corps, renewal of which was completed here recently by the transport Dellwood, linking Seattle and Seward, is 1,612 miles long and weighs 17,428 tons.

The cost of renewing the cable, which was established in 1904 with a line from Seattle to Sitka, Alaska, was put at $150,000. Colonel George Gibb, in charge of re-laying the cable, reported that the deepest place found was 2,413 fathoms, southeast of Middleton Island, 75 miles south of the northernmost point of the Gulf of Alaska. The floor of the gulf, he added, was as smooth as the plains in the States. The line was laid at an average depth of 1,718 fathoms. The relaying was begun in January.

COURSE FOR RACE IS MAPPED OUT

Begins At Road on West End of Old Fair Ground And Runs Diagonally to Walker's Field.

The course for the cross country race has just been laid out by Mr Fischer and Mr. Rodeffer. Begining at the road on the west end of the old fair ground, it runs diagonally across the grounds to the corner of John Walker's field, then diagonally across this field to a point near Tom Cantwell's, where it turns to the right, going to the opposite corner of a field owned by John Waltnax to Petersboro Avenue, it enters a short alley which curves at right angles into Worchester Avenue, then follows the Avenue up to twenty sixth street, where it turns down to Cumberland Avenue, where the last stretch will be run. The course ends in front of the Middlesboro Daily News. The course is a splendid one for a cross country run. There are several ditches to cross, a footbridge or two, and several turns, all of which will relieve any monotony that might be attached to it. The boy scouts will be posted at various turns to aid the runners in keeping on the course, and to check up on short cuts.

A number of boys have enlisted for the race, and still others are expected. The following are among those who will participate: Key Cunard, Roy Lambert, Larue Roberts, Frank Head, Gerald Pardue, Doyle Burch, Cecil Forry, Estil Yeary, Ogden Haynes, Harry Wagner, Ira Yeary, and Kenneth Hollingsworth. A silver cup goes to the winner.

The runners will assemble at the Middlesboro Daily News building at ten o'clock Tuesday morning and will be taken to the place of starting.

THE BOYCOTT

Reports come from various business houses and mining companies in western Kentucky that they are withdrawing trade from Louisville and Lexington concerns. This boycott is being enforced on account of the atitude of Lexington and Louisville voters on the bond issue.

While this move is somewhat like pouring water on a drowned rat, it is a good one nevertheless. If business houses in eastern Kentucky had told the traveling representatives of western Kentucky firms, that they would buy in Louisville and Lexington when the bond issue carried, six months ago, the hue and cry set up after the measure by the Courier-Journal and other papers would have ceased long ago.

Traveling men from western Kentucky were against the measure almost to a man and business men in this section knew their attitude. The "drummers" only represented the attitude of the house. If they had been sent out with orders to boost for the measure at every cross road store, a good many thousand could have been added to the proponent vote.

But the boycott is on—firms are telling the traveling men, they will buy in Louisville and Lexington when they can motor down to these towns and see what they have to sell—and this will have its after effect when the measure comes up again—as it will.

Did You Ever Stop to Think

By E. R. Waite, Secretary, Shawnee, Okla., Board of Commerce.

STOP TO THINK

THAT everyone should be thrifty. It is the only way in which everyone can be assured of safety and prosperity in the years to come.

THAT thrift does not mean to deny one's self of comforts. Thrift means the wise spending of money.

THAT advertisements point the way to thrift. They keep you posted as to where to make the most economical purchases from the stand-point of service and satisfaction.

THAT thrifty people save systematically. Many of them are saving to buy or build a home of their own.

THAT most of them are doing what is perfectly natural and right to do. They are investigating the cost of building a home or one already constructed.

THAT they are seeking information as to how they can buy and how they can make payments.

THAT they know the banks, the building and loan companies, the contractors and material men are only too glad to help with assistance and advice.

THAT buying or building a home is a serious undertaking, and needs much thought before a definite decision is made.

Where there is a will there is a way. The way is easier than some people think. Buy or build a home of your own.

HUNT'S DAILY LETTER

BY HARRY B. HUNT
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON—Dr. Sao-ke Alfred Sze, Chinese minister to the United States, [illegible] himself a real diplomat by the steps he has taken to set America right with respect to the "threatening Chinee."

Instead of confining his efforts for a better understanding between China and the United States to parley voos and pour pariers with the gray-beards in the State Department, Sze is making his overtures straight to the youth of the country who will have the shaping of our diplomacy in the next generation.

As a part of this idea, Sze has presented to the Central High School of Washington, in which he was formerly a student, a "Chinese room," which will keep constantly before the pupils of the school an object lesson on the art and culture of his ancient country.

• • •

THIS Chinese room, built within one of the regular class-rooms of the school, is finished with long panels of red and black lacquer. These panels are decorated with Chinese characters setting forth the characteristics of a good teacher.

The windows are shaded by gold silk curtains, over a Chinese lattice effect. A large, beautifully designed Chinese lantern, suspended from the center, sheds a mellow, softened light which brings out the oriental charm and beauty of the room.

It will be hard to convince pupils who receive part of their education in English in this room that China is a hopelessly benighted country. Instead of being given an adverse slant at China and things Chinese, they are brought to regard them with high favor. For in the desert of a modern, utilitarian, American school building, this Chinese room stands out as an oasis of beauty and inspiration. As a bit of super-diplomacy it amounts to nothing less than genius!

PUBLICATION of income tax payments proved a fine windfall for one class of business [illegible]. gave stock and bond salesmen a gilt-edged list of "prospects." For from the amount of tax paid it was possible to estimate with fair accuracy the yearly income of the reportees, and the stock and bond boys lost no time in hot-footing it out to argue the merits of their various "issues" as investments and gather in as many of the remaining dollars as possible.

One elderly Washington woman who had never been spotted by the stock and bond brokers, but who was revealed by the tax lists as having an income well up in five figures, was visited by no less than five bustling bond salesmen the morning her name was printed. She bought some securities from the last man, then locked the door, disconnected the door-bell and declared a state of siege.

WHAT'S in a name? Well, W. A. Jump, administrative assistant to acting Secretary of Agriculture Gore, held down his first job with the department solely by his ability to live up to his.

Jump's job was to carry messages from an up-town office of the department to the administration building down on the Mall, making a trip every 15 minutes. When he tackled the job he had a bicycle, and expected to be able to maintain schedule without overexertion. The round-trip distance was about a mile.

Then his bicycle was stolen. Funds were not in hand for another—and wouldn't be for several weeks. He either had to walk, and walk fast, or give up his job. So Jump jumped to it.

And by the time he was ready to buy a new bike, his boss jumped him into a better job.

But even today he can tell you just how many steps it is from the office to the middle of Pennsylvania avenue.

Cure For Sleeping Sickness Is Found

LONDON, Nov. 8.—(AP)—What is claimed to be the successful treatment of cases of "sleep sickness" by inoculation, is described by the Daily Mail as having occurred in the Lancashire Union Infirmary.

A boy patient, says the Mail, developed the disease and the doctor inoculated him with a special vaccine. A woman was admitted later suffering from sleepy sickness, and the doctor inoculated her with blood serum from the boy. The woman improved almost immediately and is now in perfect health, and the boy also recovered. The ministry of health is investigating the claim.

Smart Sport Coat

BANDS of soft brown leather and a leather scarf trim this three-quarter length sport coat of tan wool, and large leather flaps button over the large pockets. Whereas the coat was originally designed for country and motor use, it would not be at all out of place on a city street and could be used when ever a topcoat was appropriate.

Air Service Saves 15 Day Journey

LONDON, Nov. 8. (AP)—Fifteen days on the through journey from Bagdad to London will be saved when a new commercial service for passengers now planned begins operation.

Special passenger-planes designed for this route, which passes over the desert between Cairo and Bagdad, will be used. They will be equipped so that meals can be served in the air, and the day saloon will be converted into sleeping compartments at night.

Short Model Popular

IN spite of the popularity of the long and three-quarter-length coat suit, there are many women who prefer the shorter models, and for such women, here is such a one. It is of gray wool, banded with mole and with metal ribbon for giving a little color and dash. The lines are distinctly youthful and becoming.

TAKE ROAD BUSINESS OUT OF POLITICS

BARBOURSVILLE, Nov. 8.—That Knox county road management should be taken out of politics and, in the event Superintendent Spradlin is ousted, a thoroughly competent man should take the job, is the opinion of Hu Van Deventer, president of the Knox-Cumberland Automobile club, and other prominent members of the organization.

Taking No Chances in China

These French marines were not taking any chances while the Chinese were fighting around Shanghai. They erected sandbag fortifications all around the French concession, as shown in the upper picture. The general, in the lower photo, wasn't risking his life either. He is a man-of-war's man, but the one-man flivver rides comfortably, and his other servants are carrying his luggage.

Anti-Rolling Tanks Tested in High Sea

STOCKHOLM, Nov. 8. (AP)—The efficiency of the anti-rolling tanks was determined on the last trip of the Hapag liner Albert Ballin from New York to Hamburg, when the ship for the first time encountered rough seas. Scandinavia Shipping News reports that the gyro-scope pendulum indicated a rolling movement of six degrees against the horizon with the tanks in operation.

When the anti-rolling device was put out of service, the steamer rolled instantly up to an angle of 16 degrees.

POLISH BILL WOULD REGULATE DRESS

WARSAW, Nov. 8. (AP)—A bill is to be introduced in parliament and which will have the support of clergymen of all denominations, to prohibit low-necked, short-sleeve dresses which outline the figure. The bill would also prohibit dress-making establishments from exhibiting fashion models which are considered immodest.

LESSON NO. 1

THE PROPER USE OF LIGHT

Have you ever gone into a room at night, and felt that there was too much light in the room? Perhaps it was because you came in out of the dark, and your eyes were dazzled by the light. If this feeling of dazzle persisted, there was surely something wrong with the lights.

It was not too much light, however. For in that room there was certainly not more than one-hundredth part of the light that we find during a clear day on the shady side of a tree or building. Nor one-five hundredth part of what we are accustomed to find in the bright sunlight. Surely, then, the trouble in that room was not too much light!

1 to 5 Units of Light — 50 to 100 Units of Light — 500 Units of Light — 5,000 Units of Light

GLARE

The trouble in the room was too much glare—too much dazzle. Any very bright light which shines directly into the eyes produces glare and eyestrain. This becomes more and more unpleasant as the light stands out with greater contrast to the darkness of the background.

Lights for use in the home have improved quite rapidly during the last two or three generations and as soon as a better light was invented, we just put the new one in place of the older one. First the candle was replaced by the oil lamp, and this in turn by the gas light. When the modern electric light bulbs or incandescent lamps were invented and used in homes instead of gas, they gave more light and were much brighter than anything we had before.

A bright light burning outdoors in the day might not even be noticed, and it would not cause glare because there would not be enough difference between the brightness of the light and the brightness of the daylight. However, at night this same light would be quite disagreeable and might not be very good for our eyes.

In order to protect our eyes, all lamp bulbs should be shaded in such a way that we cannot see the lighted filament or wire inside the bulb and so that we do not even see a very bright spot in the shade directly in front of this lighted filament. When lights are shaded in this way, it is hardly possible to get too much light for comfortable vision. Sometimes the use of frosted bulbs will help to remove annoying glare.

Whenever you hear someone say that there is too much light in a room, it is safe to say the real trouble is not too much light, but rather that there is too much dazzle and glare and that the lights are not properly shaded.

ANOTHER KIND OF GLARE

How tired our eyes become after a day on the water, or when the sun shines brightly on the snow covered ground. Do you remember the mischievous boy in the classroom who caught a beam of sunlight in a mirror and reflected it into your eyes? It made you start. These things are particularly annoying because our eyebrows give us no protection from this indirect or reflected light which comes in from below the level of the eyes.

This kind of glare must also be guarded against if we are reading or writing on glossy paper. The light should come over the shoulder, or be directed to the page at such an angle that a beam of light from the lighted filament of a lamp bulb cannot be reflected up into our eyes. Lamps placed in front of a mirror and shaded by shields should not be placed in such a position that the mirror will reflect the image of the lighted filament of the lamp bulb back into our eyes and cause this kind of glare.

The two lower pictures show how to improve bad lighting. The man at the left shaded the light and changed his position; the man at the right changed the shade on the table lamp. The picture in the center shows a good arrangement for reading.
